Conference Mission

To provide participants with the basic understanding of discrimination and remedies related to Fair Housing. The conference will offer participants the opportunity to earn Continuing Education Units and network with other representatives.

"One Cause, Many Faces!"

Training Topics

Fair Housing Act

This session will provide participants with basic information to understand the State and Federal Fair Housing Law. Emphasis will be placed on compliance issues and recent case laws.

Disability Law

(Reasonable Accommodation/Modification)

Disability and Reasonable Accommodation-What does this mean? How does it impact you? What are your rights and responsibilities? Learn the answers to these questions and more.

Outreach & Education

Highlight the Commission's objectives in its effort to promote outreach and education in Fair Housing.

Jam Session

Reflections on recent accomplishments, one area of concern, and proposed solutions from Tenants Rights Association, Delaware Apartment Associations, DOJ Consumers Affairs, Landlord Tenants, Division of Human Relations, the Community Legal Aid Society, Inc., and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The Conference is designed for:

Mortgage Companies
Real Estate Attorneys
Real Estate Industries
Housing Authorities
Landlords, Tenants
Civic Organizations
Concerned Private Citizens

Co-Sponsors will be recognized and honored during the conference.

Participants will be given the opportunity to strengthen their awareness of Fair Housing issues and network with other representatives.

April is officially designated as the State and National Fair Housing Month, as a result of the first Fair Housing Statute being enacted nationally in April, 1968, and in the State of Delaware in April, 1969.
